

GUIDED MEDITATION

For Wealth

Imagine walking on a path... take a moment and notice the details of the path and how it feels under your feet.

What is it made of?

How wide is it?

What does it feel like to walk on it?

With every step you take, you feel more alive and feel more bounce in each step. It's difficult to stop yourself from grinning. It almost feels like you're just gliding along on a magic carpet.

You can feel fatigue and doubt simply melting away. It feels great.

As you look around, you notice the many different types of trees. While the trees come in many shapes and sizes, they all have one thing in common.

All the leaves on the trees are actually bills of every denomination.

You also notice all the bills in piles beneath the trees, almost like someone had been raking them like leaves in the autumn.

You smile as you realize that the raking was a waste of time as the trees suddenly release all their money leaves and new bills instantly grow in their place.

You feel a great sense of comfort at the abundance and wealth that is available to you whenever you want it. You stop for a moment to pick up a large handful of money. It feels so great in your hand and you start to put it in your pocket.

But you laugh when you realize that you don't need to hold onto it because there is money everywhere, so you playfully throw it into the air.

In the distance, you can hear what sounds like a small waterfall. It's ahead of you, so you stay on the path and continue walking.

As you get closer, you notice something strange: the rushing water has a metallic sound to it. As you round the large boulder that is blocking your view of the water and the waterfall, you realize the truth.

The water flowing over the waterfall is filled with gold coins, and so is the cool, crystal clear pool. The metallic sound is simply the gold coins bumping into each other.

You stand at the edge of the water and admire the beauty of the waterfall and the gold coins. You occasionally notice $100 bills floating on the water as well. Isn't it amazing?

Determined to find the source of the water, you float through the air to the top of the waterfall. You decide that flying is much easier than walking and simply fly along the winding stream toward the source.

After a few minutes of enjoying the feel of the cool breeze across your skin, you reach a small temple, not unlike a small pyramid with a single door. The water appears to be coming from under the temple.

Flying inside the stone structure, you're shocked at what you see inside.

The only thing inside the temple is a happy, smiling version of you!

The person says to you, "Now you know the two truths. Your access to abundance is unlimited; it's always there for the taking. Also, you can create all the wealth and abundance you desire."

You smile and know that it's all true.
